If a person ceases to be considered an active volunteer by the board then the waiver will cease to apply and the person will become a non voting member, unless they purchase additional shares to reach the minimum holding.
 - f) Prior to the first share offering held by the society, membership shall be defined by the list of founder members, and the minimum share requirement will be deemed to have been waived for those founder members.
 - g) The Society may issue two or more classes of shares. Different classes of share may pay different interest rates, at such rates as may be determined by the Board from time to time, but not exceeding the minimum rate necessary in the opinion of the Board to obtain and retain the capital required to carry out the objects of the Society. Different classes of shares may also become eligible for withdrawal at different dates, as determined by the Board. All shares irrespective of their issue will have the same voting rights and all shares will be treated in the same way in the case of a reduction in share value under Rule 57.

53. Shares may be withdrawn by members upon giving three months' notice to the Society (though the Board retain sole discretion to return money paid for them) provided that:
- (a) the board may set a maximum total withdrawal for each year;
 - (b) all withdrawals shall be paid in the order in which the notices were received by the society until the maximum total withdrawal allocated for the year (if any) has been reached, at which point no further withdrawal payments shall be made;
 - (c) the Board may waive the notice required for a withdrawal and may direct payment to be made without notice or on such shorter notice as they consider fit;
 - (d) the Board may suspend the right to withdraw either wholly or partially, and either indefinitely or for a fixed period. The suspension shall extend and apply to all notices of withdrawal which have been received and remain unpaid at the time the Board suspend the right to withdraw. Where the suspension is for a fixed period, such period may be extended from time to time by the Board;
 - (e) during any period when the right of withdrawal has been suspended under Rule 53(d), the shares of deceased members may, if the Board agree, be withdrawn by their personal representatives upon giving such notice as the Board may require;

- (f) the amount to be paid to a member on withdrawal shall be the amount paid up or credited on the shares to be withdrawn, except where the shares are subject to a reduction their value in accordance with the provisions of these Rules;
- (g) interest shall be payable on any share in respect of which a notice of repayment has been given until the date of repayment.

54. Any share withdrawn in accordance with the above Rule shall be cancelled.

55. Members may withdraw from the Society by withdrawing all their shares in the Society in accordance with Rule 53 or, if the right to withdraw has been suspended as provided for in that Rule, by surrendering all their shares to the Society. Upon such surrender the Board may in their discretion pay to the withdrawing member the amount paid up or credited in the shares surrendered.

56. The Society may deduct such reasonable sum to cover administrative costs of withdrawal from the monies payable to a member on the withdrawal of shares in the Society.

Reduction in Share Values

57. If the auditors (or any independent qualified accountants appointed for the purpose by the Board) certify at any time that the aggregate of the Society's liabilities plus the amount of its issued share capital exceeds its assets, then (unless in the meantime the excess has been removed) the Board may determine that the amount of this excess, or part of it, shall be apportioned among the members in proportion to (but not beyond) the amount of the nominal value of the shares paid up and held by each member. This apportionment shall be based on the value of the shares paid up and held by each member at the close of business on the date of such determination. The value of shares held by each member shall be reduced accordingly for the purposes of withdrawal of shares, notwithstanding that the value of shares held by any member may thereby be reduced below the minimum shareholding.

Lien on Shares and Right of Offset

58. The Society shall have a lien on the shares of a member for any debt due to it by the member and may set off any sum standing to the member's credit with the Society in or towards payment of such debt.

- (b) The Society shall (subject to Rule 60(c)) be exempt from the obligation to appoint a qualified auditor if during the preceding financial year it met such criteria regarding low levels of income and/or expenditure or other factors as to qualify it for statutory exemption from the need to appoint qualified auditors.
- (c) The members of the Society shall in general meeting vote every year to allow the Society to apply the audit exemption. Such a resolution will be deemed to have been passed if less than twenty per cent of the total number of votes cast are

- against the resolution and less than ten per cent of the members of the Society cast their votes against the resolution.
- (d) None of the following persons shall be appointed as auditor of the Society:

 - (iii) s/he is ineligible for appointment as auditor of the Society for the current financial year; or
 - (iv) s/he has ceased to act as auditor of the Society by reason of incapacity.
- (g) Any resolution of a General Meeting of the Society either to remove an auditor from office or to appoint another person as auditor shall not be effective unless notice of the proposed resolution has been given to the Society at least 28 days prior to the meeting at which the resolution is to be considered. At least 14 days' notice of such resolution must then be given to members of the Society in the manner prescribed in Rule 15 and in writing to the auditors.

- (b) A member may in accordance with the Act nominate any individual or individuals to whom any of her/his property in the Society at the time of her/his death shall be transferred, but such nomination shall only be valid to the extent of the amount for the time being allowed in the Act. On receiving a satisfactory proof of death of a member who has made a nomination the Society shall, in accordance with the Act, either transfer or pay the full value of the property comprised in the nomination to the person entitled thereunder.

Application of Surplus

65. Members of the Society will be rewarded primarily through a social rather than a monetary dividend. The net profit generated through the Society's activities will be added directly to the society's reserves. Any plans for spending the Society's reserves must be recommended by the Board and agreed by the membership at a general meeting. To aid this process the Board will adopt and periodically review a set of guidelines for allocation and spending of the Society's surplus and reserve funds.
